

Form 3 Japanese Class

This work must complete within 3 weeks.

After this lesson student should be able to write and read hiragana characters.

- Please parents and guardian can you please help out your kids to complete these work. It is very important to practice this activity for this is the first time your child learn Japanese lesson. Can you please take a help in google search for how to pronounce the hiragana, like the characters Ka and its different from Ga sound. But if cannot do with the internet search do not hesitate to call me on telephone 7204467, 7200677 or 8880222.

If your child completes these and do it with the passion of their heart, I know for sure your child will read Japanese words without my help. It would be a great help if your child returns to school knowing all the reading and writing of hiragana.

BY ,

Mrs. Fisi

- These are all the Hiragana characters that we are going to use in learning Japanese.

The chart on the next page showing how are you going to write the characters in Hiragana.

- Please in Writing Hiragana it is important to write in the correct order. You can write it in different order and get the same look of hiragana but in Japanese it is wrong, the most important things are the writing order of writing.
- Every stroke has its own numbers. The number 1 means that is the first stroke that you are going to write first, then second and continue on following the numbers.
